Ashlar-Vellum Transforms Design Collaboration with Free Cobalt Share Application on Apple Mac App Store

May 10, 2024, Austin, TX. Ashlar-Vellum, the leading developer of 2D CAD and 3D modeling software, announces the release of the Cobalt Share Application in the Apple Mac App Store. This transformative collaboration tool is available for free, empowering creatives and professionals to work together seamlessly, sharing design files and moving easily between Mac and Windows platforms.

Unlike other viewers, Cobalt Share not only allows users to view and collaborate on designs, but also exports in over 40 formats, including DWG, DXF, STEP, IGES, PDF, and many more. This makes it a powerful tool for working with diverse teams and spheres of design.

"We are thrilled to bring the Cobalt Share App to the Apple Mac App Store, making it more broadly accessible to Apple users worldwide," said Robert Bou, President of Ashlar-Vellum. "Our goal is to facilitate seamless collaboration and inspire creativity. We believe the Cobalt Share App will have a profound impact on the way people work together, cross-team, cross-software, cross-platform."

The Cobalt Share App:

- Empowers real-time collaboration and sharing
- Provides an intuitive interface for easy adoption
- Enables cross-platform compatibility
- Supports macOS High Sierra(10.13) or higher
- Exports in over 40 formats, including DWG, DXF, STEP, IGES, PDF
- Downloads for free from the Apple Mac App Store

Download the Cobalt Share Application now, free on the Apple Mac App Store, and experience the power of seamless collaboration and flexible idea exchange.
